

C.N. "CHUCK" LOVINSKI, MS

Mr. Lovinski has more than 25 years experience in the field of safety, including managing a staff of 29 safety professionals and implementing a comprehensive program for the air and ground transport of hazardous materials.

Mr. Lovinski is a Certified Hazard Control Manager, and is certified to teach the DOT Hazardous Materials Course.

Mr. Lovinski has held managerial positions with a number of metals manufacturing operations. He managed all aspects of health and safety for 13 plants. His programs led to one million man hours without a lost-time accident.

AFFILIATIONS

- National Safety Council Speakers Bureau
- Hazardous Materials Advisory Council
- American Trucking Association
- Air Transport Association
- National Speakers Association

EXPERIENCE

- President, Chuck Lovinski & Associates/Safety Pays LLC
- Manager of Dangerous Goods and Security, Federal Aviation Administration/Office of Civil Aviation Security and Dangerous Goods
- Corporate Senior Manager, Federal Express Corporation
- Corporate Manager of Safety and Security, Consolidated Aluminum Corporation
- Superintendent of Safety and Security, Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel Corp.
- Consultant and Trainer for various major corporations throughout United States.

EDUCATION

- Master's Degree in Safety Management, West Virginia University
- Bachelor's Degree in Education, West Virginia University

PRINCIPAL AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Safety Audits & Programs
- Regulatory Compliance
- Employee Education & Training
- Hazardous Materials Management